This position pays $12.00 per hour and may provide up to 5 hours per week.

It is important that there is recognition, acceptance, and adherence to the GCC mission and philosophy from our Federal Work Study employees.

Gogebic's Mission

Gogebic Community College is a learning community that contributes to academic, cultural, economic, and social success for our students and region.

Job Description:

- We are looking for reliable and enthusiastic individuals to work as athletic game day workers at our sporting events. As a game day worker, you will play an essential role in ensuring that our events run smoothly and that the fans have a great experience.
- Responsibilities: Assist in setting up and breaking down equipment and signage before and after game day events. Help with traffic control. Assist with ticket taking and scanning at event entrances. Potentially Line Judge Volleyball Games (White Shirt and Black Pants Required)

Minimum Qualifications:

- Student at GCC Ability to communicate effectively and work well in a team environment.
- Must be able to stand for extended periods of time and lift up to 20 pounds.
- Willingness to work flexible hours, including evenings, and weekends.
- Previous experience in customer service or event management is a plus.

Education/Career Related Benefits:

- Working as a game day worker can provide several benefits to your education and career, including:
- Practical Experience: As a game day worker, you will gain hands-on experience in event management and operations. This can be valuable for students studying sports management, hospitality management, or related fields. The practical experience you gain can complement your theoretical knowledge and help you understand the intricacies of organizing and executing large-scale events.
- Networking Opportunities: Game Day events often involve a variety of professionals, including event managers, coaches, athletes, and administrators. By working as a game day worker, you will have the opportunity to interact with these individuals and build valuable connections within the sports industry. These connections can be helpful for future job opportunities or internships.

- Transferable Skills: The skills you develop as a game day worker can be applied to various other industries and professions. For example, skills such as teamwork, communication, customer service, problem-solving, and time management are highly transferable and can benefit you in any career path you choose.
- Resume Building: Having experience as a game day worker on your resume can make you stand out to potential employers, showcasing your ability to work in a fast-paced environment, handle responsibilities, and provide exceptional customer service. It demonstrates your willingness to work flexible hours and your commitment to being part of a team.
- Personal Growth: Working as a game day worker can help you develop personally and build character. It requires adaptability, resilience, and the ability to handle high-pressure situations. These experiences can help you grow as an individual, gain confidence, and develop a strong work ethic.
- In summary, working as a game day worker can provide you with practical experience, networking opportunities, transferable skills, resume building, and personal growth. It can enhance your education and set you up for a successful career in the sports industry or any other field you choose to pursue
